

QUARTERLY ISSUES REPORT

WHYY-TV

FOR THE PERIOD OF JANUARY 1, 2002 – MARCH 31, 2002

The license station of WHYY-TV has determined that the following issues were of importance to the Delaware Valley community during the past three months and has aired the following programs to address these issues:

1.CRIME/LEGAL ISSUES/LAW ENFORCEMENT

FRONTLINE "LAPD BLUES"

1/3/02            10:00 PM        60 MINUTES            DOCUMENTARY

All is not well inside the Los Angeles Police Department. The worst corruption scandal in the force's history has devastated a police department once epitomized by Dragnet's Joe Friday and the clean-cut crew of Adam-12. In "LAPD Blues," New Yorker writer and frontline correspondent Peter J. Boyer unravels the mysteries that swirl around recent reports of police brutality, departmental racism and corrupt cops who take part in everything from dope deal to bank robberies.

FRONTLINE "AN ORDINARY CRIME"

1/10/02           10:00 PM        90 MINUTES            DOCUMENTARY

It was a robbery gone wrong, and when it was over, a woman had been shot in the head. Fingerprint evidence identified one of the suspects who quickly named his two accomplices: a friend and the friend's cousin, a man he knew only as "Terrance." And that's where the problem with this ordinary crime began. Police apprehended 16-year old Terence Garner and charged him with the crime. Garner insisted he was innocent. The co-defendants said they had never met him. Another man with the name "Terrance" surfaced and confessed to the crime, then recanted and was let go. FRONTLINE investigates a bizarre case of injustice where two men with the same name are implicated in the same crime and one Terence Garner is sentenced to 32 years in prison.

1.CRIME/LEGAL ISSUES/LAW ENFORCEMENT (CONT.)

FRONTLINE "INSIDE THE TERROR NETWORK"

1/17/02          10:00 PM          60 MINUTES          DOCUMENTARY

The hijackers of September 11 led such outwardly ordinary lives they moved through Europe and America virtually unnoticed. They plotted in broad daylight, weaving a web of terror from the simple routines of modern life. American flight schools taught them to fly local banks, helped them move money, libraries provided computers and the Department of Motor Vehicles supplied essential IDs. Everywhere they went they blended in – unnoticed and unsuspected. FRONTLINE traces the hijackers' movements across four continents, following clues they left behind to unearth the stories of individuals inside Osama bin Laden's terror network.

FRONTLINE "AMERICAN PORN"

2/7/02                  10:00 PM          60 MINUTES          DOCUMENTARY

Pornography is one of the hottest industries in America and with the growth the of films, magazines, retail stores, and the internet, business is booming. The Bush Administration has pledged a new attack on the porn industry and for the first time in years, there's a renewed interest in mounting prosecutions. With the first jury trial for obscenity since 1993 scheduled to begin this month in Los Angeles, FRONTLINE investigates the battle that will soon engulf the multibillion dollar pornography industry and its distribution partners, some of America's best known corporations.

NOW WITH BILL MOYERS #104

Moyers also interview Katie Rophie and hears the author's impressions on pornography in the new era of big business sex media.

AMERICAN EXPERIENCE "ZOOT SUIT RIOTS"

2/10/02                  9:00 PM          60 MINUTES          DOCUMENTARY

In the aftermath of a highly publicized trial for the murder of a young Mexican-American man in 1942, Los Angeles erupted in violent riots that scarred race relations for decades to come. Hector Elizondo narrates.

AMERICAN EXPERIENCE "MONKEY TRIAL"

2/17/02                      9:00 PM              60 MINUTES              DOCUMENTARY

1925, John Scopes was arrested in Tennessee for teaching evolution in defiance of state law. His trial became an all-out duel between science and religion, and one of the epic legal battles of the 20th century. Linda Hunt narrates.

2. CULTURE/ARTS

MARK TWAIN #101

1/14/02                      8:00 PM              120 MINUTES              DOCUMENTARY

In the first episode, Burns takes viewers on a journey through Sam Clemens' early days along the Mississippi River, to the small river town of Hannibal, Missouri. Clemens grows up stumbling from adventure to adventure until he begins to evolve into Mark Twain, the humorist and writer who would revolutionize the way Americans viewed themselves and their language. The episode ends with the publication of Adventures of Huckleberry Finn, a novel that has been banned in hundreds of libraries and schools across the country ever since.

MARK TWAIN #102

1/15/02                      8:00 PM              120 MINUTES              DOCUMENTARY

In episode two, Burns explores the other side of the writer – an American icon who, through tragedy and bad financial decisions, fall hard with failure. In contrast to the wildly successful Twain, Clemens is an inept businessman who squanders his fortunes on pipe dream patents and bad investments. Clemens turns to the lecture circuit and tours extensively, leaving behind his beloved Hartford home and, often his family to pay off his creditors.

With some of the nation's leading thinkers, Rukeyser examines financial, political and social trends for the coming year, and he reveals the results of an exclusive poll.

BILL MOYERS: REPORTS: TRADING DEMOCRACY

2/5/02                      10:00 PM              60 MINUTES              DOCUMENTARY

Bill Moyers takes an investigative look at the way corporate investors are using and obscure provision in the North American Free Trade Agreement to secretly challenge laws, regulations and jury verdicts before and international trade tribunal. Allowed by chapter 11 of NAFTA, multinational corporations have been able to argue that certain laws aimed at protecting the environment are harmful to them economically. These parties are demanding compensation and getting it. Moyers goes beyond public record to discover how this provision got into NAFTA and who lobbied for it.

FRONTLINE "DOT CON"

1/24/02                      10:00 PM              60 MINUTES              DOCUMENTARY

When the internet bubble burst in March 2000, unlucky investors watched more than $3 trillion of their money disappear. What spurred the incredible dot-com bull run on Wall Street? Was the public blinded by dreams of small fortunes and easy living, or did the nation's investment banks manipulate the IPO market and exploit public trust? FRONTLINE investigates the financial forces behind the unprecedented rise and seemingly overnight fall of the Internet economy.
